FROM THE CORRESPONDENCE OF THE BROTHERS ALEXANDER AND FRANZ JOSEPH VON BATTENBERG

Alexandre Kostov

This publication presents two letters of the brothers Alexander and Franz Joseph von Battenberg from the autumn of 1885, in which the main topic is the Serbo-Bulgarian War. The two documents convey the impressions of the then Bulgarian Prince Alexander von Battenberg and his youngest brother Franz Joseph of the course of the war and the situation surrounding the signing of an armistice between the two belligerents.

Keywords: Alexander von Battenberg, Franz Joseph von Battenberg, Serbo-Bulgarian War 1885, Grossherzog Ludwig IV
